Who will benefit from the Professional Certificate in Organizational Leadership and Development Program?

Individuals who already manage or plan to manage the people, projects, policies, or strategic direction of an organization will benefit from this program. Courses are open to anyone interested, and they are designed to help managers at any level gain skills for advancement.

Do I need a degree to enroll in this professional certificate program?

No, but the more education you have in a college environment the better for your resume.

When can I start the professional certificate program? Do I have to take the classes in a special sequence?

No. Classes are scheduled year-round with varying start dates, and can be taken in any order.

Are classes offered online or on the UCR campus? How often do they meet? How many can I take per quarter?

Courses are offered online and in-person. You are welcome to take as many classes as your schedule permits.

How long does it take to complete the Professional Certificate in Organizational Leadership and Development?

Usually about a year; but it depends on you and the pace you set. You have five years to finish your professional certificate program.

Where can I find more information?

On our website, the Organizational Leadership and Development Certificate webpage offers a list of required courses under the Course Schedule tab. Click on the title of each course for more details. If a course is not scheduled at this time, simply click on the Notify Me link and you will receive an email when the course is open for enrollment.

How can I reach a program expert?

Contact Tanya Meza, Program Assistant, (951) 827-1723, or bet@ucr.uch.edu.