

Osher LIFE Lecture Series

SPEAKER SCHEDULE

All lectures held at the UCR Extension Center
1200 University Ave, Riverside

APRIL

The Young Oak Kim Center for Korean American Studies at UC Riverside's Projects Korean American History and Identity

April 7 · Tuesday 1:30 – 3 pm

From the discovery of the first Koreatown, USA in Riverside, CA, to recent historic, cultural, and academic successes.

Carol Park, Adjunct Faculty and Researcher, YOK Center, UCR

Global Orphan Education Program

April 14 · Tuesday 1:30 – 3 pm

Creating sustainable education for orphans and vulnerable children in Brazil, Ethiopia, Haiti, Kenya, South Africa, and Uganda.

Dr. Anissa McNeil, CEO of Education Works Consulting Firm, Inc.

Who in the Hell Is/Was Fred Harvey?

April 21 · Tuesday 1:30 – 3 pm

The coming of fast meal service developed for the railroad stops by Fred Harvey and his Harvey Girls.

Dan O'Connor, former History Teacher and Counselor

Hand Health for the Aging: Critical to Body and Mind

April 28 · Tuesday 1:30 – 3 pm

The hand has a 30% representation on the brain's cortex, an indication of its importance. Only the lips and face have greater representation.

Janet Rendall, Occupational Therapist & Certified Hand Therapist, Retired

MAY

Back to the Future: How Kaiser Permanente changed American medicine and how it will transform the future of healthcare

May 5 · Tuesday 1:30 – 3 pm

The transformation of health care involving telephone, video, remote diagnostics, chat, and AI is happening now.

Dr. Paul Bernstein, Regional Coordinator for Telehealth Southern California and Medical Director Emeritus for Kaiser Permanente, San Diego

The Dynamic Power of the Brain

May 12 · Tuesday 1:30 – 3 pm

An examination of how the brain continues to change throughout your lifetime.

Dr. Connie McReynolds, Director, CSUSB Neurofeedback Clinics

Discovery... Technology... HOPE

May 19 · Tuesday 1:30 – 3 pm

A journey through past and current explorations of our planet, especially the oceans with increased understanding, to save and sustain the planet.

Dr. Dawn J. Wright, GISP, Chief Scientist of Esri (Environmental Systems Research Institute)

Great Arias, Duets, and Quartets

May 26 · Tuesday 1:30 – 3 pm

With so many to choose from, will yours be chosen? Come and have a listen.

Barry Schoenfeld, B.B., well-informed Opera and musical theatre aficionado

