Overview of UCR Extension

Mission
University Extension is the continuing education branch of UC campuses, providing innovative learning programs to adult learners in California, across the U.S. and throughout the world.

Extensions are flexible organizations that adapt to changes in professional, online, and continuing education trends. Can quickly create new programs to meet the workforce development needs of the communities and learners they serve.

Operating Model
Extensions are self-supported organizations that do not receive any state funding support for regular operations. Program tuition and fees are the primary source of operating revenue and are generated through a variety of community-serving programs:
- Professional Certificates and Courses
- International Education Programs
- Intensive English Language Programs
- Corporate Training Programs
- Workforce Development Programs
- Custom Programs with Community Partners
- Academic Credit Dual Enrollment Programs

Audiences Served
- Working professionals (with and without degrees)
- High School Students seeking academic/dual credit
- International students (undergraduate and graduate college students)
- International working professionals
- Degree stop out students seeking to complete a degree or certificate
Overview of UCR Extension

Quick Facts:

71 FTE Staff

~500 Active Instructors per year

6,500 total enrollments per year
  ~500 international students per year
  ~3,000 domestic students per year

Award 600-700 certificates each year

2 Locations – Riverside and Palm Desert

3 Divisions
  • Outreach and Engagement (Dean’s Office, Strategic Marketing, Recruitment/Immigration/Admissions, Partnership & Alumni Engagement)
  • Operations (HR, Finance, Registrar)
  • Academic Affairs (Academic Program Development/Management, Student Advising, Academic Quality Integrity and Assessment, Distance Education)
The Palm Desert Center serves as:

- A base for several UCR research programs.
- A host to international academic conferences, continuing education and a variety of public service programs.
- A resource to extend the reach of UCR by providing outreach efforts in local schools to promote and improve college-going rates in the Coachella Valley.

This year, the UCR Palm Desert Center merged with UCR Extension and the two units are now working as one organization.

A regional market study is being conducted to assess the professional and continuing education needs of the Coachella Valley as well as the Inland Empire.
The UPCEA Center for Research and Strategy provides industry-wide research and offers opportunities for market research, benchmarking studies, and custom data exploration at member rates far below industry average. Outcomes of the study:

• Program Portfolio Assessment
• Market Opportunity Identification and Assessment
• Enrollment Process Improvement
• New Program Development Research
• Occupational Analysis, Trending and Forecasting
• Local Economic Forecasting
• Systemwide Asset Mapping of Professional Programs
• Online Offerings
• Alternative Credential Development Research
• Degree Completion and Stop Out Student Programming

Regional areas of focus:
- Coachella Valley
- Riverside/San Bernardino
- Surrounding communities to the Inland Empire
